Food isn't just about nutrition, it connects people

As the leading meal provider for care homes, we know the importance of mealtimes. That's why we are the chosen supplier in over 400 care homes, feeding more than 15,000 residents every day.

Enhancing health and wellbeing

No doubt your home is full of people with a wide variety of tastes - especially when it comes to mealtimes! With our range of over 200 meals, including our award-winning texture modified range you can tailor menus for all sorts of tastes, dietary needs or cultural requirements.

Our in-house dietitian and registered nutritionist work alongside our chefs to ensure that our delicious meals meet the nutritional standards required by the British Dietetic Association (BDA), the National Association of Care Catering and the Care Quality Commission (CQC).
